

How to drive to Rush Presbyterian St. Luke's Medical Center

1750 West Harrison, Chicago, IL 60612

If you are coming in on I-80 from the west, you have choices. (1a) Take I-80 east to I-90/94 North to the center of Chicago, or (1b) take I-80 east to I-57 and go north until you join I-90/94 North to the center of Chicago. Then take I-290 (Eisenhower Expressway) West for 1-2 miles. Take the Paulina/Ashland (Medical Center) exit and turn left (south) on Ashland. You will cross over the Eisenhower Expressway immediately, and go 1 block beyond to Harrison. The Hyatt at University Village is on the southeast corner of this intersection. The auto-entrance is 50 yards south of the intersection (turn left).

(2) Alternatively, from I-80 you can take I-294 North (the bypass), or you can take I-55 North to I-294 and go north to I-290 and take I-290 (Eisenhower Expressway) east to the Paulina/Ashland exit and continue as above. Continue as above. Next page has a close-up map of Rush Presbyterian St. Luke's Medical Center (1750 West Harrison, Chicago, IL 60612).

Once you have gone south at Ashland, immediately on your right is the Medical Center complex. Park in the big parking garage (with the Guggenheim-like spiral ramp). The Jelke Bldg. (1750 West Harrison) is the tall one with the ramp from the street to the front door. Take the express elevators to the 12th floor. You made it!
